In-Depth

Melissa is a senior staff accountant with Henderson Hutcherson & McCullough, focusing much of her efforts on providing tax planning and business accounting services to her clients. Prior to working at Henderson Hutcherson & McCullough, Melissa worked for a public accounting firm located in New Orleans, Louisiana. After hurricane Katrina in 2005, Melissa relocated to Chattanooga to pursue her accounting career.

Melissa actively involves herself in client's operations in order to understand the infrastructure and provide a meaningful recommendation as to the assistance that Henderson Hutcherson & McCullough can provide. Melissa provides her clients with services such as tax preparation for business and individuals, accounting and auditing services including audits, review & compilations, business accounting services including general consulting, month-end closing, payroll services, tax filings. She also provides in-house training for accounting software programs.

Melissa graduated from Southern Louisiana University with a degree in accounting. She also attended the University of New Orleans and graduated with a masters of accountancy. She is currently actively involved in the Tennessee Society of Certified Public Accountants (TSCPA) and the American Society of Certified Public Accountants (AICPA).
